Policy Statement

Introduction

The College ensures it maintains open, fair and transparent procedure for making decisions about the selection of students. These procedures are founded on the published and clearly defined entry requirements, and students are selected upon successful completion of requirements, on an individual case by case basis.

Standards

Clauses 1.7 and 1.8 of Standard 1, Clause 3.6 of Standard 3, Clauses 5.1, 5.2, 5.3 and 5.4 of Standard 5, Clause 7.5 of Standard 7.

Purpose

Prior to enrolment, The College will engage with students to clearly establish the learning support needs of the individual and provide advice to the student about the training product appropriate to their needs.

The College provides details of its obligations to the student, including their responsibility for the quality of the Training and Assessment in compliance with the Standards for RTO's 2015 and the issuance of the AQF Certification documentation.

The College provides to prospective students access to current and accurate information to enable the student to make an informed decision when undertaking training with us.

The College provides details to the student outlining their obligations when enrolling in a training program.

Where there are any changes to the agreed services, The College advises the student as soon as practicable.

Context

The College, as a Registered Training Organisation must comply with the NVR Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015; 5.1 – 5.4. The following policy states the principles and rules that ensures each potential student is properly informed and protected about the services they are to receive, govern application, enrolment, and cancellation of enrolment at The College accordance with the VET Quality Framework.

Scope

This policy provides information for domestic students (which include Australian citizens and permanent residents, including permanent humanitarian visa holders) about admission to VET courses of study offered by The College.

Admission and Enrolment Policy

Eligibility for course enrolment

- a. There is a formal application process for a person seeking enrolment in an Accredited VET and or Accredited Short course with The College
- b. A person is eligible to enroll as a student in a course at The College if they:
  - have met the criteria for admission as specified by the course requirements (e.g., course pre-requisites, work experience, eligibility requirements and signed enrolment form)
- c. Where a person is seeking enrolment into an AQF Qualification with The College they are required to undertake a formal application process into the course which involves a Pretraining Review and a Language, Literacy and Numeracy Assessment, this is to ensure the student is equipped with the necessary knowledge and skills to undertake the identified course of study, and if rejected on any grounds, The College will allow the person access to the appeals process
- d. Refer to PnP – Complaint and Appeal Policy & Procedure for further detail.

Unique Student Identifier (USI)

- a. All students enrolled in an AQF qualification or nationally accredited Unit of Competency, must provide their USI number at the time of enrolment, or provide the USI number to The College prior to issuance of a certificate or statement of attainment
- b. When an applicant provides us with their USI, we MUST at the same time sight and retain a copy of an approved identity document with a photograph e.g., Driver's License or any other approved photo ID to be retained on the students file for audit purposes
- c. Where the applicant is unable to create their own USI, The College can create a USI on their behalf. The student must complete The College Enrolment form and provide the required documentation outlined in the USI – personal identification document section
- d. Entitlements and attendance responsibilities of students enrolled in a course of study at The College. A student enrolled in a course of study is entitled to gain access to student welfare support offered by The College if training is undertaken on The College's premises.
- e. Subject to The College rules, a student enrolled in a course of study at The College is entitled to:
  - attend and participate in training sessions and other scheduled activities
  - assessment(s) of their learning (where applicable)
  - receive results (where applicable).

Completion of course requirements

Where a student enrolled in a course of study is deemed by The College to have completed the requirements for that course is then eligible for the relevant Testamur, Record of Results or Statement of Attainment. Refer to PnP – Certification Policy and Procedure for further details.

Withdrawal of enrolment by the student

- a. A student may withdraw from their enrolment in a course of study prior to their course commencing or at any time during their course
- b. Students who wish to withdraw from their enrolment in a course of study should notify The College accordingly
- c. A student who withdraws from their enrolment in a course cease to be a student at The College. Such a person must reapply for admission should they wish to resume study at The College
- d. Where a student has withdrawn from their enrolment, they may be eligible for a partial or full refund of course fees paid. Refer to the PnP – Fees and Refund Policy & Procedure for further details.

Cancellation of enrolment by The College

- a. The College may cancel a student's enrolment prior to course commencement or at any time during their course where the student has:
  - failed to pay the prescribed course fees by the payment date
  - ceased being an employee of an employer where an apprenticeship or traineeship is being delivered under contract with that employer and has not resumed employment in the same role for which that apprenticeship/ traineeship was for
  - failed to attend classes for an extended duration without reason, and the allocated duration to complete the course has expired
  - serious misbehaviour or any other behaviour, criminal or otherwise, that places The College, or other persons or property at risk of physical, mental, financial or reputational damage
  - For online delivery students where no evidence has been submitted for a period of 8 weeks after the course start date.
- b. Where The College has advised the student intent to cancel their enrolment, The College must allow the student access to the appeals process before cancelling their enrolment. Refer to PnP – Complaints, Grievances & Appeals Policy for further details
- c. Where The College has cancelled a student's enrolment, the student will be notified accordingly. The student may not be eligible for refund of course fees paid. Refer to PnP – Fees and Refund Policy and Procedure for further details
- d. The College may cancel a student's enrolment prior to course commencement where it has been identified that there are insufficient numbers to commence a course, the student will be notified accordingly and offered an alternative arrangement or refund (if applicable). In the case of refunds, refer to PnP – Fees and Refund Policy and Procedure for further details; And
- e. If The College is unable to fulfil its obligations to a student enrolled in a funded training contract, it will abide by the relevant Department's ruling to transfer students to another registered training organisation that has the same funding arrangements in place e.g., QLD Subsidised training and incentives.

Responsibilities

Responsibility for the Orientation Procedure is delegated to The College's Training Coordinators by the Chief Executive Officer. All staff and clients must adhere to The College Policies and Procedures

Definitions

Admission to students for an award.

Admission prerequisite a requirement that must be met by an applicant in order to be eligible for consideration for admission to the course.

Course an approved/accredited training program of study

Cut-off the last date of enrolment to be enrolled in a course/program

Tuition fee means the cost that is required to run the course.

Course fee is the total cost of the course which in most cases includes but not limited to the tuition fee, services and amenities fees, enrolment fee, administration fee, equipment, and resources fee.

Admission and Enrolment Policy

Equipment and resources fee means items such as uniform for clinical placement, dressing packs, materials used in nursing labs, practical experience placement book and other learning materials given out in class.

Enrolment fee is the fee payable when an application is made to The College for an enrolment to a course or qualification. This fee is normally non-refundable.

Prepaid fee is the fee collected in advance before the relevant services have been provided

Full fee-paying student means a student enrolled in a VET course of study for which The College does not receive any funding from a State, Territory, or the Commonwealth in relation to the VET student's enrolment in that VET course of study.

Recognition of prior learning (RPL) is defined in the Australian Qualification Framework as follows:

"Recognition of prior learning is an assessment process that involves assessment of an individual's relevant prior learning (including formal, informal and non-formal learning) to determine the credit outcomes of an individual application for credit."

Credit transfer is defined in the Australian Qualification Framework as follows:

"Credit transfer is a process that provides students with agreed and consistent credit outcomes for components of a qualification based on identified equivalence in content and learning outcomes between matched qualifications."

Admission Process

Initial Inquiry stage

- a. Student enquires about the courses through website, walk in, ONCALL Group Australia and any external provider
- b. Course information is provided to the applicants along with Pre-Training Review criteria.

Pre-Training Review

- a. The Pre-Training Review is conducted with each student. During the Pre-Enrolment assessment/Interview, The College staff will ensure the training product is appropriate to their needs.
- b. The College staff conducts the Pre-Training Review for each student. This task encourages students to talk about their current skills and their expectation of the course. This pre training review also considers the current skills level and competency of each student. The pre-training review will ensure the student:
  - Understands the objectives of the course they are undertaking
  - Explores the students' current competencies and provides them with the opportunity for these to be assessed through Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) or Credit if you have achieved a unit/s in the past
  - Identifies the support the student may require to successfully undertake the course
  - Student enrolling in the course can also refer to the Student Handbook and the website for details of the additional support services available.
- c. During Pre-Training Review stage, if we identify that a student is still attending school and is under the age of 17 years old,
  - Review Training & Assessment Strategy (TAS) on SharePoint to ensure program is appropriate for this age group.

PnP - Admission & Enrolment Policy and Procedure.docx

Admission and Enrolment Policy

- If appropriate request for them to submit a copy of their Transition from School Form.
  - If a student does not submit this, then they are not able to progress into the course.
- d. During the PTR session the following course information is provided a course overview that includes:
  - Training and Assessment information, and related educational and support services provided by The College
  - The estimated duration
  - The expected locations at which it will be provided
  - The expected modes of delivery
  - The support services available for the student
  - Any work placement arrangements
  - Current competency is discussed
  - Fees, charges and concessions
  - Any entry requirements required to enrol in the qualification
- e. Student's learning strategy is identified, and RPL/CT is offered and all the required documents for application is collected, and student is required to complete a Credit transfer form (if applicable).

Determining the ACSF levels

- a. The enrolment officer will ensure the student can complete the training course by identifying their Language Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) levels according to the ACSF.
- b. The enrolment officer assesses an LLN Assessment with the student allowing the officer to make a judgment on the students' core skills.
  - The LLN Assessment is administered following the procedure outlined in the Language Literacy and Numeracy Procedure
  - The student completes the LLN assessment
  - The enrolment officer reviews the outcome of the assessment and if appropriate will develop an Individual Learning Plan
  - If the students' performance indicates, they are not operating at the required ACSF level to complete the proposed training successfully. The enrolment officer will recommend the student complete a Pre-level LLN Bridging Course prior to enrolment.
  - If the student identifies as having a disability and / or learning disorder, The College and the student will develop an Individual Learning Plan to maximise learning outcomes (Equity Adjustment).

Appeal

A student may appeal against a decision made with respect to admission or enrolment process/outcome and the appeal must be lodged in writing according to the processes for appeals as detailed in the Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure.

Students have the right to appeal any decision made by The College's administration under this policy. Students must lodge their appeal within 14 days of the decision being made.

Admission and Enrolment Policy

The affected parties will have access to The College's Complaints and Appeals processes if they think that the decisions made by appropriate authorities are not just and fair in their opinion.
